

Dear Client,

The Automechanika show finished some weeks ago.

The Automechanika fair is one of the most important international show, where we have been with great success.

We would like to thank all visitors and invite all the people who want to visit us at our premises in order to learn more about our products or just ..... to drink a glass of wine with us .....

For those who have not had the time to visit us in Frankfurt we are pleased to introduce our new products

Best regards,
Stanzani
